

Female Step Relationships in Hindi

The Hindi word for a female step relationship is "Sauteli" (सौतेली).

It is derived from the Sanskrit word "sautrika" which means "of another woman" or "born of a different wife."

Here are some examples:

Sauteli maa (सौतेली माँ) - Stepmother

Sauteli beti (सौतेली बेटी) - Stepdaughter

Sauteli bahen (सौतेली बहन) - Stepsister

Sauteli daadi (सौतेली दादी) - Step-grandmother

Sauteli naani (सौतेली नानी) - Step-maternal grandmother

The word "sauteli" is used as a prefix before the relevant female kinship term to indicate a step relationship on the father's side.

Some example sentences:

Mere sauteli maa ne mujhe bahut pyaar diya. (मेरी सौतेली माँ ने मुझे बहुत प्यार दिया।) Translation: My stepmother gave me a lot of love.

Uski sauteli beti usse bahut naraaz rehti hai. (उसकी सौतेली बेटी उससे बहुत नाराज़ रहती है।) Translation: His stepdaughter is very upset with him.

Hum sauteli baheno ka rishta bahut aadbhut hai. (हम सौतेली बहनों का रिश्ता बहुत आदभुत है।) Translation: The relationship between us stepsisters is quite wonderful.

On the other hand, for step relationships on the mother's side, the word "saut" (सौत) is used for both males and females. For example:

Saut bhai (सौत भाई) - Stepbrother

Saut behan (सौत बहन) - Stepsister

So in essence, "sauteli" is the Hindi word specifically used to denote a female step relationship from the father's side in the family.
