DN-5: Travelling to Nepal

narrative

A. Travelling to Nepal (DN-5)

In 1974 I took two of my language assistants (Durga Ram and Chingaru Ram) to Nepal to attend a linguistics workshop and for us to do some intensive language work while there. Durga wrote about our adventures in travelling to Nepal. This narrative text is the result. He first wrote in pencil in an exercise book and then later typed it.

The text contains quite a few words borrowed from both Hindi and English, for example, Hindi: चाए /tʃae/ 'tea', सीरप /sirəp/ 'only'; and English: आफीस [aphis] 'office', ईसटेसन /istesən/ 'station', सूटकेस /sutkes/ 'suitcase'.

This speech is about our coming from India to Nepal.

We two walked a little distance from Bhatpal and arrived at the road and we went to Jagdalpur on a truck having given a rupea each (to the driver).

After having gone there, somewhere around 10 or 11am we went to the Collector to ask for permission (to travel).

After we three having climbed in a rickshaw, that rickshaw's tyre burst behind the hospital. Then we three walked to the Collector's office. And Bai signed a paper then we entered (the office). And later Bai told (the Collector), "I would like to take these two boys to Nepal for two months." She said.

Then the Collector asked our names and he also asked our villages.

Later he said, "(You may) take them." Then at 6pm in evening we climbed on the bus and we are going to Raipur. At Kanker they fed us food.

We again climbed (on the bus) and arrived at Raipur around midnight. And we climbed on a rickshaw and we went to the railway station and we entered. And for safekeeping of her suitcase Bai booked a room. (This could also mean the luggage was booked through to Calcutta.) And there she put half the luggage. We three had carried (luggage) by hand and we went to a (suitable) place and we sat.

We sat for a long time (till) late at night. We were there nodding sleepily.

Later it became light.

At the time becoming light we cleaned our teeth. And we had breakfast. Later, around 8 or 9 am she took us to that place's hotel. We went there and we three waited there all day. At that place we bathed, slept and sat. Mid morning she gave us money for food. We descended (from the train) and below at a hotel we ate.

They charged two rupees and ten paisa for each person. We ate and climbed aboard (again). And we went to our room. And having been, having sat we were there. And later the 5pm train came from Nagpur.

She had gotten tickets for that train. And she had given the tickets to her friend. Not clear who the friend is. That lady brought our Bai's luggage. And she brought the ticket, or whatever, I don't know.

¹Typed text, 1974 by Durga. Researcher: Fran Woods.

Later we climbed on board the train, at five oclock from Raipur and we came to Calcutta overnight.

And we arrived in Calcutta around 8:30 am. And we climbed in a taxi. The taxi men loaded our luggage, we didn't load (it), those men loaded it.

Later the ladies told the taxi the name of the hotel then the taxi man took us.

It is a long way from the railway station. We arrived at the hotel and got out (of the taxi).

At the time of getting out of taxi, the servant of that place gathered together Bai's luggage into another room. (And) we were in another room. Bai was in one (separate) room. At that place there were very many ladies and gentlemen, sleeping by themselves in separate beds. Bai gave us money for food. After we went down we went to a hotel to eat.

We were only there for one night. Bai bought sandals for us. And she told us, "In the morning (we) are to be going to the airport."

She had previously gotten tickets.

At the time of becoming morning, we four climbed in a taxi and went to the airport.

And there the details were written down and (we) were to be going to get on board.

In the going direction there were two people. For the ladies, a lady will check them (while) for the men, a man will check (them) saying "have you gotten anything (you need to declare)?"

Later they will allow us to proceed.

At the time of proceeding, again (we) are to be climbing (on board).

After everyone has climbed aboard, he will take (us) up. And with a great deal of noise they will get started.

Later the plane will run very fast (down the runway) and it will fly up into the air and will go up to a high altitude.

They will also make the wheels get smaller (disappear?).

That airplane in which we climbed aboard is very big. One hundred and fifty people climbed on board there. And we were coming to Nepal. We had arrived at Patna and the plane's radio told us the news.

"A great deal of rain is falling in Nepal and it is very dark" it said.

Then we heard and from Patna they returned us to Calcutta. And they took us, however many had climbed (on board) that many people they caused to descend (at Calcutta). And they had us climb on the airline's bus and took us to the hotel.

That hotel is very large. There they fed the people as per their requirements. And they showed us to our sleeping and sitting rooms. We stayed in the hotel for a night and a morning.

At the time of day dawning the airline bus came to bring us (to the airport). There we all climbed on board and went to the airport. And again did the check-in and again we climbed on board.

At that place there were some beautiful ladies.

When the aeroplane is flying, they wait awhile and (then) give us soft drinks, cake, coca cola, or whatever we wanted.

In the aeroplane there were seats with seat belts. Those seat belts are to be tied during take off.

When flying one is to loosen (the seat belt). With the seats there is something like a pocket. There was a map and envelopes. We took them. And later we arrived in Nepal after three or four hours.

There, however much baggage one has, that much they checked and they gave for us to take.

At that place, Jenny Bai and Alice Bai had come to get us having gotten a vehicle. With them had come two sahibs.

They gathered together our luggage and put it in the motor vehicle. And they got us four to climb in. And they also got one foreign lady's husband to climb in and they brought us (from airport).

In the vehicle Alice Bai gave us some chocolate. We ate (it) and we came.

First they took us to Kirtipur, to Barbara's (house). Later we came to our house and got down (from vehicle). And Alice Bai and Jenny Bai gave us rice and lentils. We cooked (the rice and lentils) and we ate. Later Bai got a stove (and supplies) for us. And she gave them to us and (then) showed us to our room. At that place having cooked we are eating. Bai is covering the expense of our food and drink.

Now we are in Nepal.

Greetings, Fran Bai.

You stay well!

It's finished.
